

❖ ONE-SHEET ❖

Title: Humbled by Homelessness: Walking with the Forgotten and Unseen

Author: Kevin Stockseth

Genre: Memoir / Faith & Social Justice

Format: 6 × 9 in. Paperback & eBook

Publisher: Anderson Publishing – 2025

ISBN: [To be assigned]

Summary:

Humbled by Homelessness is an unflinching, hope-filled memoir drawn from Kevin’s lived experience on the streets of Salt Lake City. Through raw storytelling, theological reflection, and glimpses of everyday grace, Kevin reveals the humanity behind homelessness—and the sacredness found in survival, service, and second chances. Each chapter weaves personal narrative with community insight, inviting readers to see the face of Christ in the forgotten and unseen.

Key Themes:

- The intersection of faith, dignity, and survival
- Street-level compassion and the power of community
- Homelessness as both crisis and classroom
- The resilience of the human spirit

About the Author:

Kevin Stockseth is a writer, speaker, and lived expert on homelessness whose advocacy and art seek to build bridges between worlds too often divided. His voice calls the Church and community alike to a deeper understanding of mercy, justice, and belonging.

Notable Works:

- Homilies from the Streets (upcoming)
- Stained Glass Stars — original song and video
- “Faces of the Forgotten” — featured chapter excerpt

Audience:

Faith-based readers, social justice advocates, community organizations, book clubs, seminaries, and all who seek authentic stories of hope and transformation.